Practical information

- Excursions take place by bus or train and the group is accompanied by a teacher or our social director (this isn't valid if there is an activity on Sunday)
- For the visits of towns and villages we only chose short walking distances with several breaks .
- Besides the excursion on the Saturday, tuition and activities are reserved to seniors only and no other student will be mixed to the group.
- Accommodation is carefully chosen near the school (less than 1 kilometre by walking)
- All activities are guided and commented in French language .
Activity programme during the February session is partly focused on Carnival events.
